St. James's, May 14.

AN humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy Governours, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the Queen's County, aſſembled at a General Aſſizes held at Maryborough, having been tranſmitted from Ireland by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Warſaw, May 5. N. S. The Primate hath received an Anſwer to the laſt Letter he writ to King Auguſtus. His Majeſty aſſures him, that tho' the Intereſts of his own Hereditary Dominions, which were to be debated at the Congreſs of Brunſwick, required his Preſence, he was nevertheleſs determined to return ſoon into Poland; That he had nothing more at Heart than to procure ſuch a Peace for the Kingdom, as would leave it in a Condition to have the Saxon Troops withdrawn from thence without Danger to the Commonwealth: But that in the preſent conjuncture, while the Nation was perpetually alarm'd by the frequent Changes and Inconſtancies of the Ottoman Port, it was by no means ſafe to recall thoſe Forces, which the Republick had ſent for, and maintained hitherto at a great Expence. We have received an account that on the 16th paſt, Monſieur Pocici was elected Mareſchal of the Tribunal of Lithuania. On the 17th the States of the Great Dutchy aſſembled, and agreed to ſend two Deputies to King Auguſtus, to deſire he would convene a general Diet on Horſeback, and to repreſent to him the Exactions of the Saxon Troops, which the Republick was reſolv'd not to bear any longer. They have likewiſe ſent three Deputies to the Czar, with Inſtructions to beg he will imploy his Interceſſions with the King to obſerve the Statutes of Lithuania, as he is obliged to do by his Coronation Oath, and conſequently to withdraw the Saxon Forces, not only out of the Great Dutchy, but out of the whole Kingdom. Letters from Podolia confirm our former accounts, that the Turks were aſſembling a powerful Army near Chocim, and their Preparations give us the greater Uneaſineſs, as we have receiv'd advice from Conſtantinople, that the Rebellion in Aſia is entirely quelled. A conſiderable Body of Coſſacks is lately returned into Ukrain, upon which a Detachment of the Army of the Crown has been ſent to drive them out of that Country.

Vienna, May 9. N. S. The Emperor continues ſtill at Laxembourg, where he holds frequent Councils upon the preſent Situation of his Affairs. It is ſaid, his Imperial Majeſty will not return to this Place till towards the end of July, and that ſoon after his arrival here he will ſet out for Presbourg, in order to put an end to the Diet of the States of Hungary, which hath been aſſembled near two Years. Count Torreſini, Envoy of Guaſtalla, hath received an Expreſs, with an Account, that on the 28th paſt the Duke his Maſter died of an Apoplexy, in the Eightieth Year of his Age. Yeſterday Count Goes ſet out for Baden, and Count Seilern intends to follow him very ſoon. Count Wrataſlaw is arrived here from Prague, and General Mercy from Lorrain. It is ſaid, the Imperial Troops, which are now in Bavaria, will be ſent into Hungary, and that thoſe in the Dioceſe of Hildeſheim are to march towards Philipsbourg. Letters from Conſtantinople bring an account, that the Turks continued their warlike Preparations both by Sea and Land, which hath given great uneaſineſs to the neighbouring Princes and States. The ſame Advices add, that the King of Sweden had at laſt reſolved to return home through the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions, and that King Staniſlaus would retire into France.

Berlin, May 12. N. S. The King continues ſtill at Potſdam, from whence he is expected in a Day or two in this City. His Majeſty intends to ſet out ſoon for Cleves, and Baron Herteveld is already gone before, in order to prepare Matters for his Reception. Baron Spar continues to hold frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of this Court, but it is not yet known upon what Subject. The Regiments of Horſe of the Margrave Lewis, and Brigadier Blankenheim, are ordered to haſten their March from the Rhine towards this Country. Monſieur Achenback, formerly the King's Secretary at the Hague and at Utrecht, is appointed to be his Reſident at the Court of Muſcovy. It is ſaid his Majeſty hath reſolved to publiſh an Edict, declaring, that he hath quite compleated his Levies, and thoſe who retired out of this Country for fear of being preſs'd into the Service, ſhall be pardon'd if they will return to their Houſes.

Bruſſels, May 20. N. S. Monſieur Peſters, the Dutch Intendant, is lately gone from hence, in order to adjuſt ſome Accounts of the Contributions raiſed the laſt War in the Diſtricts of Metz and Cologne, with the Intendants of France and Pruſſia at thoſe Places. Laſt Week Major General Sabine came hither from Gand, and Brigadier Sutton from Bruges, to deſire the Regency would ſend Directions to the States of Flanders to regulate the Quarters of thoſe Garriſons upon the foot of the preceding Summers, which they have accordingly obtained, and intend to return in a few Days to their reſpective Commands. Letters from Madrid bring an Account, that the Court of Spain was reſolved to carry on the Siege of Barcelona with the utmoſt Vigour, and to that end the French Troops were order'd to haſten their March.

Hague, May 22. N. S. The Marquis de Monteleone hath been frequently of late in Conference with the Earl of Strafford, upon the Treaties ſtill depending between the Crowns of Spain and Portugal, as alſo between his Catholick Majeſty and this Republick. Yeſterday the States ſent an Expreſs to the Duke d'Oſſuna at Utrecht, with an Anſwer to a Letter they received ſome time ago from the King of Spain, notifying the Death of his Queen. They have likewiſe ſent the moſt Chriſtian King a Compliment of Condoleance upon the Death of the Duke of Berry. Laſt Night Mr. Harley arrived here from Hanover, and intends to embark for Great Britain in a few Days.

Paris, May 23. N. S. On the 21ſt Count Feron, Ambaſſador in Ordinary from the King of Sicily, made his Publick Entry here with great magnificence.
